1. QUOTES

"Moreira has matured into one of the top African exponents of jazz from Africa, African jazz or do we create a new genre style and classify it Afro World Jazz! ...Moreira does not disappoint, he has taken this journey along with his collaborators to the world and proves that he is a leader and an innovator in the ever expanding and growing world of jazz music"

– Eric Alan: All Jazz Radio (Mzansi Jazz Award recipient for Best Jazz Radio 2018)

"Moreira is an intuitive reedsman who knows exactly what to do with his love of a melodic soprano solo – keep it funky" – Miles Keylock (Journalist, Publisher of Rolling Stone magazine Africa)

"When a groove is melded with a variety of cultural influences and competent musicianship on every instrument, you have something special" – Woodrow Wilkins (All About Jazz)

"I'd be very surprised (but delighted) if there's a better Southern African jazz set in 2023" – John Armstrong (Truth and Lies)

2. BIOGRAPHIES

Short Biography (100 words)

Mozambican jazz-saxophonist, composer, producer, academic and philanthropist, Moreira Chonguiça is feted as one of the finest exponents of innovative and original jazz from Africa.

As an independent artist with seven award-winning, globally informed and celebrated albums – he is blazing a trail from his east-African roots to the world.

Exposed to and inspired by the likes of Miles Davis, Fela Kuti, Percy Sledge and Manu Dibango, Moreira's energetic contemporary rhythmic compositions have garnered applauses across all six continents.

His unique sound, technical agility and ingenuity on the alto and soprano saxophone, coupled with passionate stage performance captivates audiences universally.
